SHAPING THURROCK PARTNERSHIP'S
LOCAL AREA AGREEMENT (LAA) 2008/09 – 2010/11

SUSTAINABLE GROWTH

Thurrock is a place that is rapidly changing. An identified growth area in the Thames Gateway, there are few places in the country that match the housing and employment growth that Thurrock will be subject to during the next twelve years. This growth is coupled with a significant regeneration work programme. Development will need to address a wide range of current infrastructure deficits as well as plan for the needs of Thurrock's growing and diversifying population. With 18 miles of riverfront, Thurrock is also vulnerable to the future affect of climate change.

Delivering growth in a way that is balanced and sustainable is crucial for Thurrock. With local skills levels and wages significantly below national averages, employment growth will need to take place across a range of sectors, and local people will need every opportunity to enhance their skills in order to benefit from these local employment opportunities. Economic and housing growth does not have to be at the expense of the environment. Over 60% of Thurrock is green belt land and the open spaces and natural environment is highly valued by local people. Thurrock's environment is a resource in its own right that has the potential to help us deliver sustainable growth well into the future.

LAA indicators are intended to reflect outcomes that local partners influence through service delivery but as these outcomes are not under the complete control of public services, external factors will play a part. The Government recognises that the economic downturn and credit crisis will make it more difficult to achieve housing and enterprise targets (NIs 154 and 171). These indicators will be reviewed in 2010.

POSITIVE IMAGE OF THURROCK

During the boom of industry, Thurrock was a place of thriving wealthy settlements. Though times have changed, the legacy remains and it is a heritage of which many people in Thurrock are not aware. Thurrock has over 18 miles of riverfront, areas of outstanding natural beauty and sites of historic significance. Partners not only want to make improvements in areas that will enhance the quality of life of local people, but also reinforce their sense of local pride. This means addressing some of the key priorities of local people such as enhancing the cleanliness of our streets, the quality of and access to our open spaces, as well as reducing waste and the impact of anti-social behaviour.

Growth and regeneration also gives us the opportunity to promote Thurrock in a more positive light so that it is perceived by people both inside and out of the borough, as a location of choice. We want to ensure that those travelling through Thurrock on our strategic transport network, visiting Lakeside or one of our parks and heritage sites, or potential businesses and home-buyers looking to relocate to Thurrock have a safe and positive experience of Thurrock. Equally we want visitors to have made a positive impact on Thurrock, on our economy, our environment and most importantly, our people.

REACHING YOUR POTENTIAL

Partners are committed to ensuring that all people in Thurrock are equipped with the tools that will enable them to reach for and realise their potential. We want to remove current barriers to learning, focusing on vulnerable groups and individuals, so that adults and young people alike can benefit from the increased prosperity that will be brought into the area.

Many activities in this theme are specifically targeted at our children and young people, a cohort of Thurrock's population that is steadily growing. Partners have high expectations for the life chances of our young people. Partners are using our LAA to address the holistic needs of the child or young person, so that we create more positive experiences around learning that will be felt by the child or young person and also benefit the whole family. Coupled with increased provision of further and higher education, available for adults and young people alike, we hope to sustain this cycle of positive learning well into the future.

EMBRACING CHANGE AND DIFFERENCE

Thurrock is in an unprecedented period of change. Whilst it is recognised that change can bring about opportunity, the pace of change in Thurrock is rapid and can be unsettling for our community (and communities). In recent years, incidents of race and hate crime have occurred in some areas of Thurrock. Across the borough, resident's perception of feeling able to influence decisions is unacceptably low.

Partners in Thurrock are eager to help the community, in all its shapes and forms, to keep pace with change as it takes place across the borough, so that people do not feel alienated or marginalised as a result of this change. This theme is not simply about the creation of harmonious communities. We are working together to help people come to terms with change and feel comfortable with tolerating difference. We want to help local people feel engaged in their community, able to influence decisions, participate and contribute within the community and be equipped to make change happen for themselves, by themselves.

SUPPORTING THE VULNERABLE

All people can be vulnerable at different times and different stages of their life. There are conditions that can create vulnerability within different communities and groups and sometimes underlying causes of vulnerability can be masked. Quite often the solution that will best meet the needs of a vulnerable person will require effective joined-up multi-agency working, and all too often resources are spent on problems that are more visible.

Thurrock's partners are committed to investing in services that have traditionally been overlooked. More support will be available for victims of hidden crimes. Those in need of health and care services will have increased choice about how and when that care is provided. We will work together, particularly with our partners in the voluntary, community and faith sector to provide a better range of support to meet the emotional, physical and mental health needs of our vulnerable children and adults.

REDUCING INEQUALITY

Mortality rates of people living in Thurrock are similar to national averages. This figure alone is deceiving as it doesn't illustrate that in some areas of Thurrock people enjoy health relative to national averages, but in other areas of Thurrock people do not. Even looking at ward data can sometimes be deceiving for it isn't until one examines super output areas that the true extent of Thurrock's health inequalities is exposed. In light of this, partners are committed to reducing health inequalities in Thurrock, ensuring the health of our least disadvantaged stays high and importantly, that the health of our most disadvantaged improves.

A person's health is affected by a wide range of social, economic and environmental factors. Key initiatives will be focused on health promotion to address key factors currently exacerbating health inequalities in Thurrock. Other initiatives will be aimed at ensuring that access to opportunities provided by growth and regeneration is not limited by where you live. Resources for this theme will be targeted at those geographic areas and community groups where investment to reduce inequalities is most required.

LEISURE AND HEALTHY LIVING

Thurrock's partners are using the LAA to deliver against an ambitious policy agenda: to create the conditions that enable residents of Thurrock to live long and healthy lives. Success will be measured in terms of improved quality of life, not just longer years of life. We will introduce new models of working so that services and infrastructure can grow and adapt to the changes presented by our growing and diversifying population. The benefits of this investment should be felt by all ages in all areas of Thurrock. We will equip our children with tools to make informed choices about their health and wellbeing. Where an individual might need support, it will be delivered in a way that fosters independence and choice. When an individual seeks help to make changes to their lifestyle, support will be given in a way that encourages such changes to be sustainable for the rest of their life.

Note on 08/09 Enjoy and Achieve targets that are not applicable

The timing of setting the 16 statutory school indicators is set by DCSF. Each year's target is based on the performance of that group of children at certain points as they move through school. For example, the targets for children who will be in Yr 6 in the academic year 2008/9 are set when these children are in Year 5. During the autumn term individual school-by-school targets are negotiated. During the spring term these are aggregated for the local authority as a whole and then negotiated between the local authority and DCSF. This process of negotiation begins from 31 January.

Annex A: LAA – Summary of 2010-11 targets agreed – March 2009

In return for confirmed achievement in full of the targets identified below Communities and Local Government will pay the local authority a nonringfenced grant by virtue of Section 31 of the Local Government Act 2003. Reward will be calculated by reference to the LAA reward guidance: 2009, published by Communities and Local Government.
