

Victim Support volunteering opportunities

Charity No: 1096254

Salary: n/a Voluntary (expenses paid)

If you have a few hours a week spare and would like to help support victims of crime we would love to hear from you. The work can be extremely rewarding supporting people on a one to one basis, making a difference to the life of someone who has been affected by crime. You will receive excellent training, support and supervision. No previous experience is necessary just understanding, good listening skills and to be able to get along with people of all ages, cultures and backgrounds.

Please contact Sue Chorley/Emma Tierney - Community Managers on 0845 4565 995 for an informal chat. We look forward to hearing from you.
